

Oracle e-business specialist

Opportunity 1 : Oracle Finance Functional

Location – Nové Mesto nad Váhom , Slovakia

Duration - March 1st 2017 – October 6th 2017

The resource is to be 80% functional and 20% technical with experience in the following modules GL, AR, AP, Costing, Fixed Assets, Purchasing and Cash Management along with cross track experience like purchasing, order management, manufacturing. Importance to understand manufacturing accounting flow base costing and also need to understand Intercompany accounting transaction flow. Candidate should know Slovakia localization, Statutory and EB-Tax.

Responsibilities:

- Responsible for all development, conversions, and development support related to Finance, Costing and Sourcing track during the release schedule. This includes driving a project plan and ensuring milestones are met. Must possess Oracle Database 9i, SQL, PL/SQL, Oracle Forms/reports 6i, and Workflow, XML Publisher and Unix Scripting skills. Should have a very good working experience on end to end flow related to Order to Cash, Manufacturing and Procure to Pay track. Person should be willing to travel as and when needed.
- Applies standard development procedures and a detailed knowledge of the application being developed
- Review technical and functional designs driving towards simple, sustainable, and reusable solutions.
- Should have working experience including setting up Oracle AR, AP, GL, CM, FA, Purchasing, Costing, EB Tax and Slovakia statutory & Localization related modules to meet business requirements
- Perform Production Support activities for organization's internal customers.
- Implementing and rolling out the developed solutions in Oracle ERP based environment.
- Provides integrated systems planning and recommend new functionalities, technologies and processes targeting improved bottom line for the organization.
- Researches and evaluates new and/or alternative solutions and technologies to enhance operational effectiveness and reduce costs.
- Provides in-depth technical and functional solution to Business Unit and IT management and ensure development of efficient application systems utilizing established standards, procedures, and methodologies.